PRESS RELEASE

DISCOVERY WORLD CORPORATION-OWNED PROPERTIES WIN GLOBAL AWARDS

Well-known international award-giving bodies have recently recognized Philippine properties for their world-class service and facilities and their contributions to the tourism industry.

Condé Nast Traveler, a world-renowned international travel magazine, has recently released the results of its annual tourism survey, the 2021 Readers' Choice Awards, revealing a list of the best of the best in the world in terms of hospitality, tourism and travel destinations. According to a Condé Nast article, the 2021 survey was done with more than 20,000 readers, "asking readers to nominate the hotels and spas they escape to ... and the islands, cities and countries that spark their curiosity." This year, Discovery Shores Boracay made it to this prestigious list.

Named as one of the Top 25 Resorts in Asia, Discovery Shores Boracay continues to bring honor to the country for the various international awards it has received every year.

At the same time, Green Destinations, a non-profit foundation for sustainable tourism that has developed an assessment and reporting system to assess current tourism policy, management and sustainability performance on relevant sustainability themes, has unveiled its Top 100 Sustainable Stories award and Club Paradise Palawan was the only Philippine property that made it to the list.

To describe the Top 100 Sustainable Stories award, "Green Destinations puts in the spotlight local and regional destinations around the world that are taking incremental steps and making promising progress towards a more sustainable tourism industry. More than ever this year, the goal is to share these destinations' innovative and effective sustainability tourism stories and good management practices as inspiring examples to others..."

"We are deeply grateful for these international recognitions for both resorts. Our dedication for service and our commitment to our guests, the environment and the community where we belong have been our driving force, especially during this very challenging time. We proudly carry the Philippine flag in all our wins and we are extremely delighted to be have been able to
